Handling Adjudications During Proceedings Beyond IJ Authority

Although the Immigration Judge does not have authority to adjudicate certain applications, the judge may need to examine whether the application is prima facie approvable to determine whether "good cause" exists to grant a continuance for adjudication.

U.S. Citizenship: A Legal & Jurisdictional Issue

Jurisdiction in the exactive to order deportation only exists if the person arrested is an alien. The claim of citizenship is thus a denial of an essential jurisdictional fact.

This holding extends to authority to detain a respondent as well.
